

FIFTH CIRCUIT FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER ORGANIZATION EMPLOYMENT DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN

I. INTRODUCTION

The Judiciary, including Federal Public Defender Organizations (FPDOs), is committed to a workplace of respect, civility, fairness, tolerance, and dignity, free of discrimination and harassment. These values are essential to FPDOs, which hold Federal Public Defenders (FPDs) and their Employees to the highest standards. All FPDs and Employees are expected to treat each other accordingly.

This Plan provides options for the reporting and resolution of allegations of wrongful conduct (discrimination, sexual, racial, or other discriminatory harassment, abusive conduct, and retaliation) in the workplace. Early action is the best way to maintain a safe work environment. All FPDOs, FPDs, and Employees have a responsibility to promote workplace civility, prevent harassment or abusive conduct, and to take appropriate action upon receipt of reliable information indicating a likelihood of wrongful conduct under this Plan. See Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees, Canon 3(C). This Plan is promulgated by the circuit judicial council and United States Court of Appeals (COA) for adoption by each FPD within the circuit, pursuant to their respective authorities under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g)(2)(A).

This Plan applies to all FPDOs, FPDs, current and former Employees (including all FPDO law clerks and paid and unpaid interns, externs, and other volunteers who have signed a gratuitous services agreement), and applicants for FPDO employment who have been interviewed. The following persons cannot seek relief under this Plan: FPDs¹, Criminal Justice Act panel attorneys and applicants, private investigators, retained service providers, community defender employees, volunteer mediators, and any other non-Employees not specified above. See Appendix 1 for full definitions.

II. WRONGFUL CONDUCT

- A. This Plan prohibits wrongful conduct that occurs during the period of employment or the interview process (for an applicant). Wrongful conduct includes:
- discrimination;
 - sexual, racial, and other discriminatory harassment;
 - abusive conduct; and
 - retaliation (including retaliation as described in the Whistleblower Protection Provision in Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 12, § 220.10.20\(c\)).

¹ FPDs are covered by the Court of Appeals EDR Plans and may seek relief under those Plans.

Wrongful conduct can be verbal, non-verbal, physical, or non-physical. Each of these categories of wrongful conduct is defined, and some examples are provided, on pages 2-3.

Wrongful conduct also includes conduct that would violate the following employment laws and policy, as applied to the Judiciary by Judicial Conference policy:

- Title VII, Civil Rights Act of 1964;
- Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967;
- Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973;
- Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993;
- Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994;
- Whistleblower Protection Provision (Guide, Vol. 12, § 220.10.20\(c\));
- Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act;
- Occupational Safety and Health Act; and
- The Employee Polygraph Protection Act of 1988.

See Guide, Vol. 12, Ch. 2.

- B. Discrimination is an adverse employment action that materially affects the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment (such as hiring, firing, failing to promote, or a significant change in benefits) based on the following Protected Categories: race, color, sex, gender, gender identity, pregnancy, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age (40 years and over), or disability.
- C. Discriminatory harassment occurs when a workplace is permeated with discriminatory intimidation, ridicule, and insult that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to alter the conditions of the employment and create an abusive working environment. Discriminatory harassment includes sexual harassment.

Examples of repeated or persistent conduct that may give rise to discriminatory harassment: racial slurs; derogatory comments about a person's ethnicity, culture, or foreign accent; or jokes about a person's age, disability, or sexual orientation.

Examples of repeated or persistent conduct that may give rise to sexual harassment: suggestive or obscene notes, emails, text messages, or other types of communications; sexually degrading comments; display of sexually suggestive objects or images; unwelcome or inappropriate touching or physical contact; unwelcome sexual advances or propositions; inappropriate remarks of a sexual nature or about physical appearance; or employment action affected by submission to, or rejection of, sexual advances.

- D. Abusive Conduct is a pattern of demonstrably egregious and hostile conduct not based on a Protected Category that unreasonably interferes with an Employee's work and creates an abusive working environment. Abusive conduct is threatening, oppressive, or intimidating.

Abusive conduct does not include communications and actions reasonably related to performance management, including but not limited to: instruction, corrective criticism, and evaluation; performance improvement plans; duty assignments and changes to duty assignments; office organization; progressive discipline; and adverse action.

- E. Retaliation is a materially adverse action taken against an Employee for reporting wrongful conduct; for assisting in the defense of rights protected by this Plan; or for opposing wrongful conduct. Retaliation against a person who reveals or reports wrongful conduct is itself wrongful conduct.

III. REPORTING WRONGFUL CONDUCT

The Judiciary, including FPDOs, encourages early reporting and action on wrongful conduct. Employees who experience, observe, or learn of reliable evidence of sexual, racial, or other discriminatory harassment or abusive conduct are strongly encouraged to take appropriate action, including reporting it to a supervisor, human resources professional, FPD, Circuit Executive, COA or FPDO Employment Dispute Resolution (“EDR”) Coordinator, Chief Circuit Judge, Circuit Director of Workplace Relations (DWR), or to the national Office of Judicial Integrity. See Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees, Canon 3(C). Employees are also encouraged to report wrongful conduct in the workplace by non-Employees. Confidentiality requirements do not prevent any Employee from revealing or reporting wrongful conduct. See Plan §§ IV(B)(1) and (2).

IV. OPTIONS FOR RESOLUTION

The goal of the Judiciary and FPDO is to address wrongful conduct as soon as possible and to provide multiple, flexible options for doing so. An Employee who believes he or she has been the object of wrongful conduct is always free to address a conduct issue directly with the person who allegedly committed wrongful conduct or to contact a colleague, supervisor, FPD, or other individual to discuss or address the situation.

This Plan provides the following additional options for Employees who believe they have been the object of wrongful conduct, and Employees may choose the option(s) that best fit their needs and comfort level.

- A. Plan Options. This Plan provides three options to address wrongful conduct, as explained in detail below:

1. Informal Advice
2. Assisted Resolution
3. Formal Complaint

- B. General Rights. All options for resolution are intended to respect the privacy of all involved to the greatest extent possible, and to protect the fairness and thoroughness of the process by which allegations of wrongful conduct are initiated, investigated, and ultimately resolved.

1. Confidentiality. All individuals involved in the processes under this Plan must endeavor to maintain confidentiality to the extent possible and appropriate under the circumstances.

During Informal Advice, requests for complete confidentiality should be honored if possible, and an EDR Coordinator or Director of Workplace Relations should not disclose to others the possibility of an EDR matter, the identity of the Employee who sought advice, or the alleged wrongful conduct.

During Assisted Resolution and the Formal Complaint process, information will be shared only to the extent necessary and only with those whose involvement is necessary to address the situation.

Any person involved in mediation must not disclose any information or records obtained through mediation except as necessary to consult with the parties or their representatives, and then only with notice to all parties; or as the information or records are otherwise discoverable in a Formal Complaint proceeding.

In all circumstances, including during Informal Advice, an assurance of confidentiality must yield when there is reliable information of wrongful conduct that threatens the safety or security of any person or that is serious or egregious such that it threatens the integrity of the Judiciary and of the FPDO and its obligations to clients.

Confidentiality obligations in the Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees concerning use or disclosure of confidential information received in the course of official duties, including attorney-client and work-product privileged information, do not prevent nor should they discourage Employees from reporting or disclosing wrongful conduct, including sexual, racial, or other forms of discriminatory harassment by the FPD, a Judge, a supervisor, or other person.

Supervisors, FPDs, and Circuit Executives must take appropriate action when they learn of reliable information of wrongful conduct, such as sexual, racial, or other discriminatory harassment, which may include informing the appropriate Chief Circuit Judge.

2. Attorney-Client and Work-Product Obligations. All individuals involved in the processes under this Plan must protect attorney-client and work-product privileged communications. See Code of Conduct for Federal Public Defender Employees, Canon 3(D). Consistent with an FPDO employee's ethical obligation to protect attorney-client and work-product privileged information, he or she shall redact privileged information and clients' personal identification information including case numbers from all communications during the request and process of Assisted Resolution and the filing and process of a Formal Complaint. The FPDO in responding to a Request for Assisted Resolution or in responding to a Formal Complaint must also protect attorney-client and work-product privilege.

3. Impartiality. All investigations, hearings, and other processes under this Plan must be conducted in a thorough, fair, and impartial manner. The COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator, the Circuit DWR, and the Presiding Judicial Officer must be impartial and may not act as an advocate for either Party. The EDR Coordinators, Circuit DWR, or Presiding Judicial Officer must recuse if he or she participated in, witnessed, or was otherwise involved with the conduct or employment action giving rise to the claim. Recusal of these individuals is also required if the matter creates an actual conflict or the appearance of a conflict.
4. Right to representation. Both the Employee and the FPDO responsible for providing any remedy have the right to be represented by an attorney or other person of their choice at their own expense. Another Employee may assist the Employee or FPDO if doing so will not constitute a conflict of interest or unduly interfere with his or her duties, as determined by the assisting Employee's appointing officer.
5. Interim Relief. An Employee who pursues any of the options under this Plan may request transfer, an alternative work arrangement, or administrative leave if the Employee alleges egregious conduct by a supervisor or the FPD that makes it untenable to continue working for that person. Any such request must be made to the FPD (or Chief Circuit Judge, if the FPD is the subject of the allegations) to determine appropriate interim relief, if any, taking into consideration the impact on the FPDO.
6. Allegations Involving a Third Party. An Employee alleging that a third party, including a Judge, Clerk of Court, or other Court Employee, has engaged in wrongful conduct and who reports the wrongful conduct to the FPDO, may—if the FPDO fails to take appropriate action—use any of the options for resolution from an FPDO as set forth in Section C. An FPDO is obligated to take appropriate action when an Employee alleges wrongful conduct by anyone, including a Judge.

An FPD may file a complaint regarding wrongful conduct by a Judge with the Chief Circuit Judge, in accordance with the COA's EDR Plan. See Plan, fn 1.

An Employee or FPD may also file a complaint under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351-364.

C. Specific Options

1. Informal Advice. An Employee may contact a COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator, Circuit DWR, or the national Office of Judicial Integrity for confidential advice and guidance (see § IV.B.1) about a range of topics, including:

- the rights and protections afforded under this Plan, the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, and any other processes;
- ways to respond to wrongful conduct as it is happening; and/or
- options for addressing the conduct, such as informal resolution, participating in Assisted Resolution, or pursuing a Formal Complaint under this Plan, a complaint under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, or other processes.

2. Assisted Resolution. Assisted Resolution is an interactive, flexible process that may include:

- discussing the matter with the person whose behavior is of concern;
- conducting a preliminary investigation, including interviewing persons alleged to have violated rights under this Plan and witnesses to the conduct;
- engaging in voluntary mediation between the persons involved; and/or
- resolving the matter by agreement.

a. To pursue this option, an Employee must contact a COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator or Circuit DWR and complete a “Request for Assisted Resolution” (Appendix 2), consistent with Section IV.B.2 of this Plan. The Judiciary and FPDO encourage early reporting and action on wrongful conduct and strongly encourage Employees alleging claims under the EDR Plan to first use Assisted Resolution before filing a Formal Complaint. An Employee asserting any claim of abusive conduct must first use Assisted Resolution before filing a Formal Complaint. Filing a Request for Assisted Resolution does not toll (extend) the time for filing a Formal Complaint under § IV.C.3 unless one of the Parties requests, and the Chief Circuit Judge or Presiding Judicial Officer grants, an extension of time for good cause, as permitted in § IV.C.3.a.

b. If the allegations concern the conduct of a Judge and the Employee seeks assistance from the FPDO, the Chief Circuit Judge must be notified and will be responsible for coordinating any Assisted Resolution and/or taking any other action required or appropriate under the circumstances, including notice to the Chief District Judge. See, e.g., Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

c. If the allegations concern the conduct of an Employee (not the FPD), the COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator or Circuit DWR will coordinate Assisted Resolution and must notify the FPD. The FPD is responsible for assessing the allegation(s) and taking appropriate steps to resolve the matter. If the allegations concern the conduct of the FPD, the COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator or Circuit DWR must notify the Chief Circuit Judge, who is responsible for assessing the allegation(s) and addressing the matter as appropriate.

d. The FPD (or Chief Circuit Judge) responsible for assessing the allegations, as indicated in (b) and (c) above, may deny the Request for Assisted Resolution at any time if he or she concludes it is frivolous; it does not allege violations of the rights or protections in this Plan; the alleged conduct arises out of the same facts and circumstances, and was resolved by, a previous EDR Complaint or other claim process or procedure; or on other appropriate grounds.

e. If Assisted Resolution is successful in resolving the matter, the Parties will so acknowledge in writing.

f. The Parties will determine when to conclude the Assisted Resolution process. If Assisted Resolution is not successful in resolving the matter, the COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator or Circuit DWR will advise the Employee of his or her rights to file a Formal Complaint under this Plan and/or pursue action under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, if applicable, or any other processes.

3. Filing a Formal Complaint. An Employee may file a Formal Complaint (“Complaint”) with any of the COA EDR Coordinators to address a claim of wrongful conduct, consistent with Section IV.B.2 of this Plan.

a. To file a Complaint, an Employee must submit a “Formal Complaint” (Appendix 3) to any of the COA EDR Coordinators within 180 days after the alleged wrongful conduct or within 180 days after the time the Employee becomes aware or reasonably should have become aware of such wrongful conduct. Use of the Informal Advice or Assisted Resolution options does not toll (extend) this 180-day deadline unless the Chief Circuit Judge or the Presiding Judicial Officer grants an extension of time for good cause.

b. An Employee asserting any claim of abusive conduct must first use Assisted Resolution before filing a Formal Complaint.

c. The Employee filing the Complaint is called the Complainant. The Party responding to the Complaint is the FPDO that is responsible for providing any appropriate remedy and is called the Respondent. The Complaint is not filed against any specific individual(s) but against the FPDO.

d. Complaint Regarding a Judge. An Employee alleging that a Judge has engaged in abusive conduct or harassment may file a Formal Complaint under this Plan to seek a remedy from the FPDO, only if the FPDO failed to reasonably try to prevent and promptly correct the abusive conduct or harassment. Otherwise, there is no recognized remedy against the FPDO under this Plan for wrongful conduct by a Judge. The EDR Coordinator must immediately provide a copy of the Complaint to the Chief Circuit Judge (or the next most-senior active Circuit Judge, if the allegation is against the Chief Circuit Judge), who will oversee the EDR Complaint process. If a District, Magistrate, or Bankruptcy Judge is the subject of the Complaint, the EDR Coordinator must also provide a copy of the Complaint to the Chief District Judge (unless the Chief District Judge is the subject of the Complaint, in which case the Complaint will be given only to the Chief Circuit Judge).

If a Judge becomes the subject of both a Complaint under this Plan and a complaint under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, the Chief Circuit Judge will determine the appropriate procedure for addressing both, which may include holding the EDR claim in abeyance and determining how best to find any common issues of fact, subject to all requirements of the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, and, as practicable, this EDR Plan. Regardless of whether there is a formal complaint under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, the Chief Circuit Judge should consider the need for any necessary or appropriate interim relief.

e. Formal Complaint Procedures and Procedural Rights

i. Appointment of Presiding Judicial Officer. Upon receipt of a Complaint, the COA EDR Coordinator will immediately send a copy of the Complaint to the Chief Circuit Judge, who will appoint a Presiding Judicial Officer. The Presiding Judicial Officer will be a Judge in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals or, when appropriate, a Judge from another court² other than the district court where the FPDO is located (with the consent of the respective Chief Judge of that court).

ii. Presiding Judicial Officer. The Presiding Judicial Officer oversees the Complaint proceeding. The Presiding Judicial Officer will provide a copy of the Complaint to the FPD against whose FPDO the ² Court of appeals, district court, bankruptcy court, Court of Federal Claims and Court of International Trade, or of any court created by an Act of Congress in a territory that is invested with any jurisdiction of a district court of the United States.

Complaint has been filed (Respondent), except when the Presiding Judicial Officer determines for good cause that the circumstances dictate otherwise. The Presiding Judicial Officer must provide the individual alleged to have violated rights under this Plan notice that a Complaint has been filed and the nature and substance of the Complaint allegations.

The Presiding Judicial Officer will provide for appropriate investigation and discovery, allow for settlement discussions, determine any written submissions to be provided by the Parties, determine if a hearing is needed, determine the time, date, and place of the hearing, issue a written decision, and, if warranted, order remedies.

iii. Disqualification and Replacement. Either Party may seek disqualification of the COA EDR Coordinator or the Presiding Judicial Officer by written request to the Chief Circuit Judge, explaining why the individual should be disqualified.

If the Presiding Judicial Officer is disqualified, the Chief Circuit Judge will designate another Judge to serve as Presiding Judicial Officer pursuant to subsection (f)(i). If the COA EDR Coordinator is disqualified, the Chief Circuit Judge will appoint one of the alternate COA EDR Coordinators or, if available, an EDR Coordinator from another court (with the consent of the respective Chief Judge of that court).

iv. Response. The Respondent may file a Response to the Complaint with the COA EDR Coordinator within 30 days of receiving the Complaint, consistent with Section IV.B.2 of this Plan. The COA EDR Coordinator must immediately send the Response to the Presiding Judicial Officer and to the Complainant.

v. Investigation and Discovery. The Presiding Judicial Officer will ensure that the allegations are thoroughly, impartially, and fairly investigated, and may use outside trained investigators if warranted. The investigation may include interviews with persons alleged to have violated rights under this Plan and witnesses, review of relevant records, and collecting documents or other records. The Presiding Judicial Officer will provide for such discovery to the Complainant and Respondent as is necessary and appropriate. The Presiding Judicial Officer will also determine what evidence and written arguments, if any, are necessary for a fair and complete assessment of the allegations and response.

vi. Case preparation. The Complainant may use official time to prepare his or her case, so long as it does not unduly interfere with the performance of duties.

vii. Extensions of time. Any request for an extension of time must be in writing. The Presiding Judicial Officer may extend any of the deadlines set forth in this EDR Plan for good cause, except for the deadline to issue a written decision, which may be extended only by the Chief Circuit Judge.

viii. Established Precedent. In reaching a decision, the Presiding Judicial Officer should be guided by judicial and administrative decisions under relevant rules and statutes, as appropriate. The Federal Rules of Evidence and any federal procedural rules do not apply.

ix. Notice of Written Decision. The COA EDR Coordinator or Presiding Judicial Officer will immediately send a copy of the written decision to the Parties, the Chief Circuit Judge, and to any individual alleged to have violated rights protected by this Plan. The COA EDR Coordinator will inform the Parties of appeal rights, procedures, and deadlines.

f. Resolution of Complaint Without a Hearing. After notifying the Parties and giving them an opportunity to respond, the Presiding Judicial Officer may resolve the matter without a hearing.

i. The Presiding Judicial Officer may dismiss a Complaint and issue a written decision at any time in the proceedings on the grounds that: it is untimely filed, is frivolous, fails to state a claim, or does not allege violations of the rights or protections in this Plan; the alleged conduct arises out of the same facts and circumstances, and was resolved by, a previous EDR Complaint or other claim process or procedure; or on other appropriate grounds.

ii. After completion of investigation and discovery, the Presiding Judicial Officer may, on his or her own initiative or at the request of either Party, issue a written decision if the Presiding Judicial Officer determines that no relevant facts are in dispute and that one of the Parties is entitled to a favorable decision on the undisputed facts.

iii. The Parties may enter into an agreed written settlement if approved in writing by the Presiding Judicial Officer and the Chief Circuit Judge.

g. Resolution of Complaint With a Hearing. If the Complaint is not resolved in its entirety by dismissal, Assisted Resolution, decision without a hearing, or settlement, the Presiding Judicial Officer will order a hearing on the merits of the Complaint.

i. Hearing. The hearing will be held no later than 60 days after the filing of the Complaint unless the Presiding Judicial Officer extends the deadline for good cause. The Presiding Judicial Officer will determine the place and manner of the hearing.

ii. Notice. The Presiding Judicial Officer must provide reasonable notice of the hearing date, time, and place to the Complainant, the Respondent, and any individual(s) alleged to have violated the Complainant's rights.

iii. Right to Present Evidence. The Complainant and Respondent have the right to present witnesses and documentary evidence and to examine adverse witnesses.

iv. Record of Proceedings. A verbatim record of the hearing must be made and will be the official record of the proceeding. This may be a digital recording or a transcript.

v. Written Decision. The Presiding Judicial Officer will make findings of fact and conclusions of law and issue a written decision no later than 60 days after the conclusion of the hearing, unless an extension for good cause is granted by the Chief Circuit Judge.

h. Remedies. When the Presiding Judicial Officer finds that the Complainant has established by a preponderance of the evidence (more likely than not) that a substantive right protected by this Plan has been violated, the Presiding Judicial Officer may direct the FPDO to provide remedies for the Complainant. The remedies are limited to providing relief to the Complainant, should be tailored as closely as possible to the specific violation(s) found, and take into consideration the impact on the FPDO. The Chief Circuit Judge and/or FPDO (Respondent) must take appropriate action to carry out the remedies ordered in the written decision, subject to any applicable policies or procedures.

i. Allowable Remedies may include:

- placement of the Complainant in a position previously denied;
- placement of the Complainant in a comparable alternative position;
- reinstatement to a position from which the Complainant was previously removed;
- prospective promotion of the Complainant;
- priority consideration of the Complainant for a future promotion or position;
- back pay and associated benefits, when the statutory criteria of the Back Pay Act are satisfied³;

³ Back Pay Act. Remedies under the Back Pay Act, including attorney's fees, may be ordered only when the statutory criteria of the Back Pay Act are satisfied, which include: (1) a finding of an unjustified or unwarranted personnel action; (2) by an appropriate authority; (3) which resulted in the withdrawal or reduction of all or part of the Employee's pay, allowances, or differentials. An order of back pay is subject to review and approval by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. See 5 U.S.C. § 5596(b)(1) and Guide, Vol. 12, § 690.

- records modification and/or expungement;
- granting of family and medical leave;
- any reasonable accommodation(s); and
- any other appropriate remedy to address the wrongful conduct.

ii. Unavailable Remedies. Other than under the Back Pay Act, monetary damages are not available. The Presiding Judicial Officer may award attorney's fees only if the statutory requirements under the Back Pay Act are satisfied.

iii. Discipline. The issue in an EDR Complaint is whether the FPDO is responsible for the alleged conduct; it is not an action against any individual. The Presiding Judicial Officer lacks authority to impose disciplinary or similar action against an individual.

i. Review of Decision (Appeal). The Complainant and/or the Respondent may appeal the decision to the Judicial Council of the Fifth Circuit by submitting in writing a Request for Review of Decision setting forth the grounds for appeal within 30 days of the date of the decision under procedures established by that Judicial Council (Appendix 4). The COA EDR Coordinator will inform the Parties of the procedures for seeking review. The decision will be reviewed based on the record created by the Presiding Judicial Officer and will be affirmed if supported by substantial evidence and the proper application of legal principles.

V. FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER ORGANIZATION OBLIGATIONS

To ensure that Employees are aware of the options provided by this Plan, and that the Plan is effectively implemented, FPDOs must adhere to the following:

- A. Adopt and Implement EDR Plan. All FPDOs must adopt and implement an EDR Plan based on this Fifth Circuit FPDO EDR Plan, if authorized by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. Any modification of this Fifth Circuit FPDO EDR Plan (1) may expand, but should not diminish or curtail, any of the rights or remedies afforded Employees under this Fifth Circuit FPDO EDR Plan, and (2) must be approved by the Judicial Council of the Fifth Circuit. A copy of each EDR Plan and any subsequent modifications must be filed with the Court of Appeals and with the Administrative Office.
- B. Records. At the conclusion of informal or formal proceedings under this Plan, all papers, files, and reports will be filed with the FPDO EDR Coordinator. No papers, files, or reports relating to an EDR matter will be filed in an Employee's personnel folder, except as necessary to implement an official personnel action.

Final decisions made following Formal Complaint procedures under the Fifth Circuit's EDR Plan will be made available to the public free of charge upon written request addressed to the Circuit Director of Workplace Relations. The Presiding Judicial Officer's decision is the "final decision" under the Fifth Circuit's EDR Plan if no Request for Review of Decision is filed by the deadline. The panel of the Judicial Council's decision is the "final decision" if a Request for Review of Decision is filed. Individual names and other identifying information that appeared in a final decision, to include any attorney-client and work-product privileged information, will be removed before the decision is released to the public.

- C. EDR Coordinators. The FPDO will designate both a primary FPDO EDR Coordinator and at least one alternate FPDO EDR Coordinator for the FPDO. An FPDO may use an EDR Coordinator from another FPDO, or may use the Circuit Director of Workplace Relations as an alternate FPDO EDR Coordinator, if necessary, with the approval of the appropriate FPDO or the Chief Circuit Judge, respectively. In addition, any EDR Coordinators appointed to serve the COA under the COA's EDR Plan are also available to the FPD and FPDO Employees. An Employee may choose the COA or FPDO EDR Coordinator with whom he or she wishes to seek Informal Advice or request Assisted Resolution. An Employee may only file a Formal Complaint with a COA EDR Coordinator.

An FPDO EDR Coordinator must be an FPDO Employee. An FPD may not be an EDR Coordinator. All EDR Coordinators must be trained and certified as set forth in the EDR Interpretive Guide and Handbook.⁴

D. Advising Employees of their Rights. Courts and FPDOs must:

1. prominently post on their internal and external main homepages a direct link, labeled “Your Employee Rights and How to Report Wrongful Conduct,” to:
 - the entire EDR Plan with all Appendices and relevant contact information;
 - the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, and the Judicial Conduct and Disability Complaint form; and
 - contact information for all of the COA and FPDO EDR Coordinators, Circuit DWR, and the national Office of Judicial Integrity.
2. prominently display in the workplace:
 - the posters set forth in Appendix 5; and
 - an Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Notice that: (a) states that discrimination or harassment based on race, color, sex, gender, gender identity, pregnancy, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age (40 years and over), or disability is prohibited; (b) explains that Employees can report, resolve, and seek remedies for discrimination, harassment, or other wrongful conduct under the EDR Plan by contacting any of the COA or FPDO EDR Coordinators and/or the Circuit DWR, and/or the national Office of Judicial Integrity; (c) identifies the names and contact information of all COA and FPDO EDR Coordinators, the Circuit DWR, and the national Office of Judicial Integrity; and
 - (d) states where the EDR Plan can be located on the Court’s website.
3. ensure that each new Employee receive an electronic or paper copy of the EDR Plan and acknowledge in writing that he or she has read the Plan; and
4. conduct training annually for all FPDs and Employees to ensure that they are aware of the rights and obligations under the EDR Plan and the options available for reporting wrongful conduct and seeking relief.

E. Reporting. FPDOs will provide annually, to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and to the Chief Circuit Judge, data on: (1) the number and types of alleged violations for which Assisted Resolution was requested, and for each matter, whether it was resolved or was also the subject of a Complaint under this Plan or other complaint; (2) the number and type of alleged violations for which Complaints under this Plan were filed; (3) the resolution of each Complaint under this Plan (dismissed or settled prior to a decision, or decided with or without a hearing); and (4) the rights under this Plan that were found by decision to have been violated. FPDOs should also provide any information that may be helpful in identifying the conditions that may have enabled wrongful conduct or prevented its discovery, and what precautionary or curative steps should be undertaken to prevent its recurrence.

As to any incident for reporting above which necessarily contains or refers to attorney-client or work-product privileged information inherently involved in the Complaint, hearing or resolution process, FPDOs will report the incident as required above, but should redact privileged information where applicable.

- F. Case assignment due to potential conflict. An Employee who filed or was the subject of a Request for Assisted Resolution or Formal Complaint (whether pending or concluded), and who is assigned to appear before a Judge who assessed and addressed the Request for Assisted Resolution, who served as Presiding Judicial Officer for the Formal Complaint, or who was involved with allegations made in a Request for Assisted Resolution or a Formal Complaint, may request that the FPD reassign the case to another lawyer. The FPD has full discretion to determine whether reassignment of the case is appropriate under the circumstances.

DEFINITIONS

APPENDIX 1

Circuit Director of Workplace Relations: A circuit Employee who coordinates workplace conduct issues and the implementation of all court and FPDO EDR Plans within the circuit. The scope of duties may vary by circuit, but generally, a Circuit Director of Workplace Relations may: provide Informal Advice and Assisted Resolution under any EDR Plan within the circuit; assist in training the EDR Coordinators within the circuit; provide or arrange for training throughout the circuit on workplace conduct, discrimination, and sexual harassment; and collect and analyze statistical data and other information relevant to workplace conduct matters.

EDR Coordinator: A Court of Appeals (COA) EDR Coordinator is an EDR Coordinator designated by the Chief Circuit Judge under the EDR Plan of the COA. An FPDO EDR Coordinator is an FPDO Employee, other than the FPD, designated by the FPDO to assist with Informal Advice and Assisted Resolution matters. The COA and FPDO EDR Coordinators provide confidential advice and guidance (see § IV.B.1.) if an Employee seeks Informal Advice and coordinate the Assisted Resolution process, including any necessary investigation. The COA EDR Coordinator (only) accepts Formal Complaints under this Plan for filing and assists the Presiding Judicial Officer in the Complaint proceeding, as directed. The FPDO EDR Coordinator maintains and preserves all court files pertaining to matters initiated and processed under this EDR Plan. These EDR Coordinators assist the Court of Appeals and FPDO in meeting their obligations under this Plan to train and advise employees of their rights under this Plan, and to post the Plan as directed. Additional information on the EDR Coordinator's responsibilities may be found in the EDR Interpretive Guide and Handbook.

Employee: All current and former employees of FPDOs, all FPDO law clerks, paid and unpaid interns, externs, and other volunteers, and applicants for employment who have been interviewed.

FPDO/Respondent: The FPDO responsible for providing any appropriate remedy.

Judge: A judge appointed under Article III of the Constitution, a United States bankruptcy judge, a United States magistrate judge, a judge of the Court of Federal Claims, a judge of the Court of International Trade, or a judge of any court created by Act of Congress in a territory that is invested with any jurisdiction of a district court of the United States.

Office of Judicial Integrity: The office of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts staffed to provide advice and guidance to Employees nationwide about workplace conduct issues, including sexual, racial, and other discriminatory harassment, abusive conduct and other wrongful conduct. Contact information for the Office of Judicial Integrity can be found on JNet and on uscourts.gov.

Parties: The FPDO and the Employee who has filed a request for Assisted Resolution or a Formal Complaint.

Protected Category: Race, color, sex, gender, gender identity, pregnancy, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age (40 years and over), or disability.

REQUEST FOR REVIEW OF DECISION (APPEAL)

Submitted under the Procedures of the Fifth Circuit Employment Dispute Resolution Plan

1. A Complainant and/or Respondent aggrieved by the decision of a Chief Judge or Presiding Judicial Officer, on an EDR Formal Complaint filed in any Court of the Fifth Circuit, may request review of the decision by the Judicial Council.
2. The Request for Review of Decision must be filed in writing with the Circuit Executive within 30 days of receipt of the challenged ruling. The Appendix 4 form should, but is not required to, be used in filing a Request for Review. In any event, the Request for Review should include the information requested by the Appendix 4 form.
3. Upon receipt of notice of the filing of a Request for Review, the EDR Coordinator for the involved Court shall promptly transmit to the Circuit Executive the complete record of the Complaint.
4. After the record is received by the Circuit Executive, the Chief Judge of the Circuit shall appoint a panel composed of three members of the Judicial Council to review the Complaint and its disposition. The panel shall be empowered to act for and on behalf of the Judicial Council.
5. The panel shall consider the record of the Complaint and such other data or evidence as it deems appropriate, and shall rule thereon within 30 days, if possible. Panel action shall be by majority vote and the panel shall be guided by the substantial evidence standard of review.
6. Decisions by the panel shall be in writing and shall be final and conclusive and not subject to further review by the Judicial Council, judicial appeals, or otherwise.

How to Address Wrongful Conduct in the Workplace

INFORMAL ADVICE

To request advice about a workplace concern, contact your Employment Dispute Resolution (EDR) coordinator, Circuit Director of Workplace Relations, or the Office of Judicial Integrity. They can provide you with advice and guidance on how to address the issue including:

- Your rights under the EDR Plan
- Advice on handling discriminatory, harassing, or abusive conduct
- Options for addressing the conduct

ASSISTED RESOLUTION

Contact an EDR Coordinator or Circuit Director of Workplace Relations to request Assisted Resolution. This interactive, flexible process may include:

- Discussions with the source of the conduct
- Preliminary investigation, including interviewing witnesses
- Mediation
- Resolving the matter by agreement

FORMAL COMPLAINT

Contact an EDR coordinator to file a formal complaint.

The Complaint must be filed within 180 days of the alleged violation or the discovery of the violation.

This formal process includes:

- Appointment of Presiding Judicial Officer
- An investigation and/or hearing if appropriate
- Written decision
- Appeal rights

Confidentiality

All options for resolution are intended to respect privacy of all involved to the greatest extent possible, and to protect the fairness and thoroughness of the process by which allegations of wrongful conduct are initiated, investigated, and ultimately resolved.

Your Rights

In a Federal Judiciary Workplace

Employees of the Federal Judiciary are protected by the employment rights listed below, as described in Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 12, Ch. 2.

Employees have options for resolution, including Informal Advice, Assisted Resolution, and filing a Formal Complaint. Formal Complaints must be filed within 180 days of when the Employee knew or should have known of the alleged violation. More information, including a list of court EDR Coordinators, can be found on JNet.

Employees may confidentially report workplace discrimination, harassment, abusive behavior, or retaliation to an EDR Coordinator, Circuit Director of Workplace Relations, or the Judicial Integrity Officer, Jill B. Langley, at 202-502-1604.

Protection from Unlawful Discrimination

Prohibits discrimination in personnel actions based on race, color, sex, gender, gender identity, pregnancy, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age (40+), or disability.

Protection from Harassment

Prohibits sexual harassment, discriminatory harassment, and abusive conduct.

Protection for Exercising Workplace Rights

Prohibits intimidation, retaliation, or discrimination against employees who exercise their employment rights or report or oppose wrongful conduct, including whistleblower protection.

Family and Medical Leave

Provides rights and protections for employees needing leave for specified family and medical reasons.

Protection for Veterans and Members of the Uniformed Services

Protects employees performing service in the uniformed services from discrimination and provides certain benefits and reemployment rights.

Notification of Office Closings and Mass Layoffs

Under certain circumstances, requires that employees be notified of an office closing or of a mass layoff at least 60 days in advance of the event.

Hazard-Free Workspaces

Requires employing offices to comply with occupational safety and health standards, and provide workplaces free of recognized hazards.

Polygraph Testing Prohibition

Restricts the use and the results of polygraph testing.

These rights are fully explained in Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 12, Ch. 2.

The Employment Dispute Resolution Formal Complaint Process

File a Complaint

File a complaint with an EDR coordinator within 180 days of the conduct (or discovery of the conduct).

Gather Information

The Presiding Judicial Officer decides what investigation and discovery are needed and if written arguments are needed.

Hearing

The Presiding Judicial Officer determines if a hearing is needed.

DECISION

RIGHTS

- An impartial investigation and/or hearing, if appropriate.
- Both parties may use a representative or attorney (at own expense).
- Both parties may present witnesses and examine adverse witnesses.
- A prompt written decision by a Presiding Judicial Officer.
- Appeal.

APPEAL

Parties have the right to appeal to the Fifth Circuit Judicial Council within 30 days of a decision.
